LEGENDS AND LANDSCAPE

Plenary Papers from the 5th Celtic-Nordic-Baltic Folklore Symposium,
Reykjavík 2005

Ed. Terry Gunnell

UNIVERSITY OF ICELAND PRESS
REYKJAVIK 2008
Dedicated to two bridge-builders
in international folklore studies

JACQUELINE SIMPSON

and

BO ALMQVIST
Contents

Bengt av Klintberg (Sweden): Getingen (poem) ......................... 7

Terry Gunnell (England/Iceland): Introduction ......................... 9

Bookend I:
Jacqueline Simpson (England):
   A Ghostly View of England’s Past ................................. 25

Approaches
Anna-Leena Siikala (Finland):
   Reproducing Social Worlds: The Practice and
   Ideology of Oral Legends ........................................... 39

Ulf Palmenfelt (Sweden):
   Form and Other Aspects of Legends ................................ 69

Arne Bugge Amundsen (Norway):
   Translating Narratives: The Interpretation of Legends in Recent Norwegian Folklore Studies ..................

Research History
Séamas Ó Catháin (Ireland):
   The Formation Of A Celtic-Nordic Folklorist:
   The Case of James Hamilton Delargy/
   Séamus Ó Duilearga (1899-1980) .....................................

Ulrika Wolf-Knuts (Finland):
   From Philology to Process: The Collection of Finlands Svenska Folkdiktning as a Representation of Finland-Swedish Folklore ...........................................

Ülo Valk (Estonia):
   Folk and the Others: Constructing Social Reality in Estonian Legends

Function, Meaning and Context

Timothy R. Tangherlini (United States/ Denmark):
The Beggar, the Minister, the Farmer, his Wife and the Teacher: Legend and Legislative Reform
in Nineteenth-Century Denmark

Bengt af Klintberg (Sweden):
Legends of the Impaled Dead in Sweden

John Lindow (United States):
Changelings, Changing, Re-exchanges: Thoughts on the Relationship between Folk Belief and Legend

John Shaw (United States/ Scotland):
Gaelic/ Norse Folklore Contacts and Oral
Traditions from the West of Scotland

Bookend II:

Bo Almqvist (Sweden/ Ireland):
Midwife to the Fairies (ML 5070) in Icelandic Tradition

Bo Almqvist (Sweden/ Ireland):
Midwife To the Fairies in Iceland: A Variant List

Dáithí Ó hÓgáin (Ireland):
Kilstiheen (on the coast of Clare) (poem)

Contributors