

The Icelandic Rarities Committee

Report of a rare bird

No.(IRC):
Accepted (IRC):
Published (IRC):

Species (and subspecies if known)		W-Pal. no.	Euring no.
Place of observation (town and street; district or community; coordinates on sea (°N, °W))		County
No. of birds , age and sex (immature, adult; female, male)	<input type="checkbox"/> seen <input type="checkbox"/> caught	If caught, how? - Released, banded, collected?
Date (or period, when the bird was seen)
Observer (observers) , address and telephone number
Other observers, that can confirm the identification
Finder (if another than the observer and is known) and finding date (if known)
Was the bird photographed? (by whom and when) - Photos shall always be enclosed		<input type="checkbox"/> photo exists	<input type="checkbox"/> photo is enclosed
		<input type="checkbox"/> video exists	<input type="checkbox"/> photo shall be returned
Collector (if applicable)	Collecting date (if applicable)	Where is the bird kept (if collected)	Collection number
Distance to bird(s) (m)	Length of observation (min.)	Binoculars / telescope (size)	Are you sure about the identif.?
Weather (sunshine/clouds, wind, rain, temperature etc.)		Have you seen this sp. before?
		<input type="checkbox"/> immediately <input type="checkbox"/> after some observation <input type="checkbox"/> after consulting books
Reference (field book, telephone call, letter, published etc.)	Name of reporter		Date of report

Description of bird(s) and circumstances - Drawing - Sex, age and plumage - Habitat - No. of birds by days - More exact location etc.